Catamount

High school ties can ne'er be broken
They can never die;
Far surpassing wealth unspoken
Sealed by friendship's tie.

Martha Ann Williamson

CHORUS

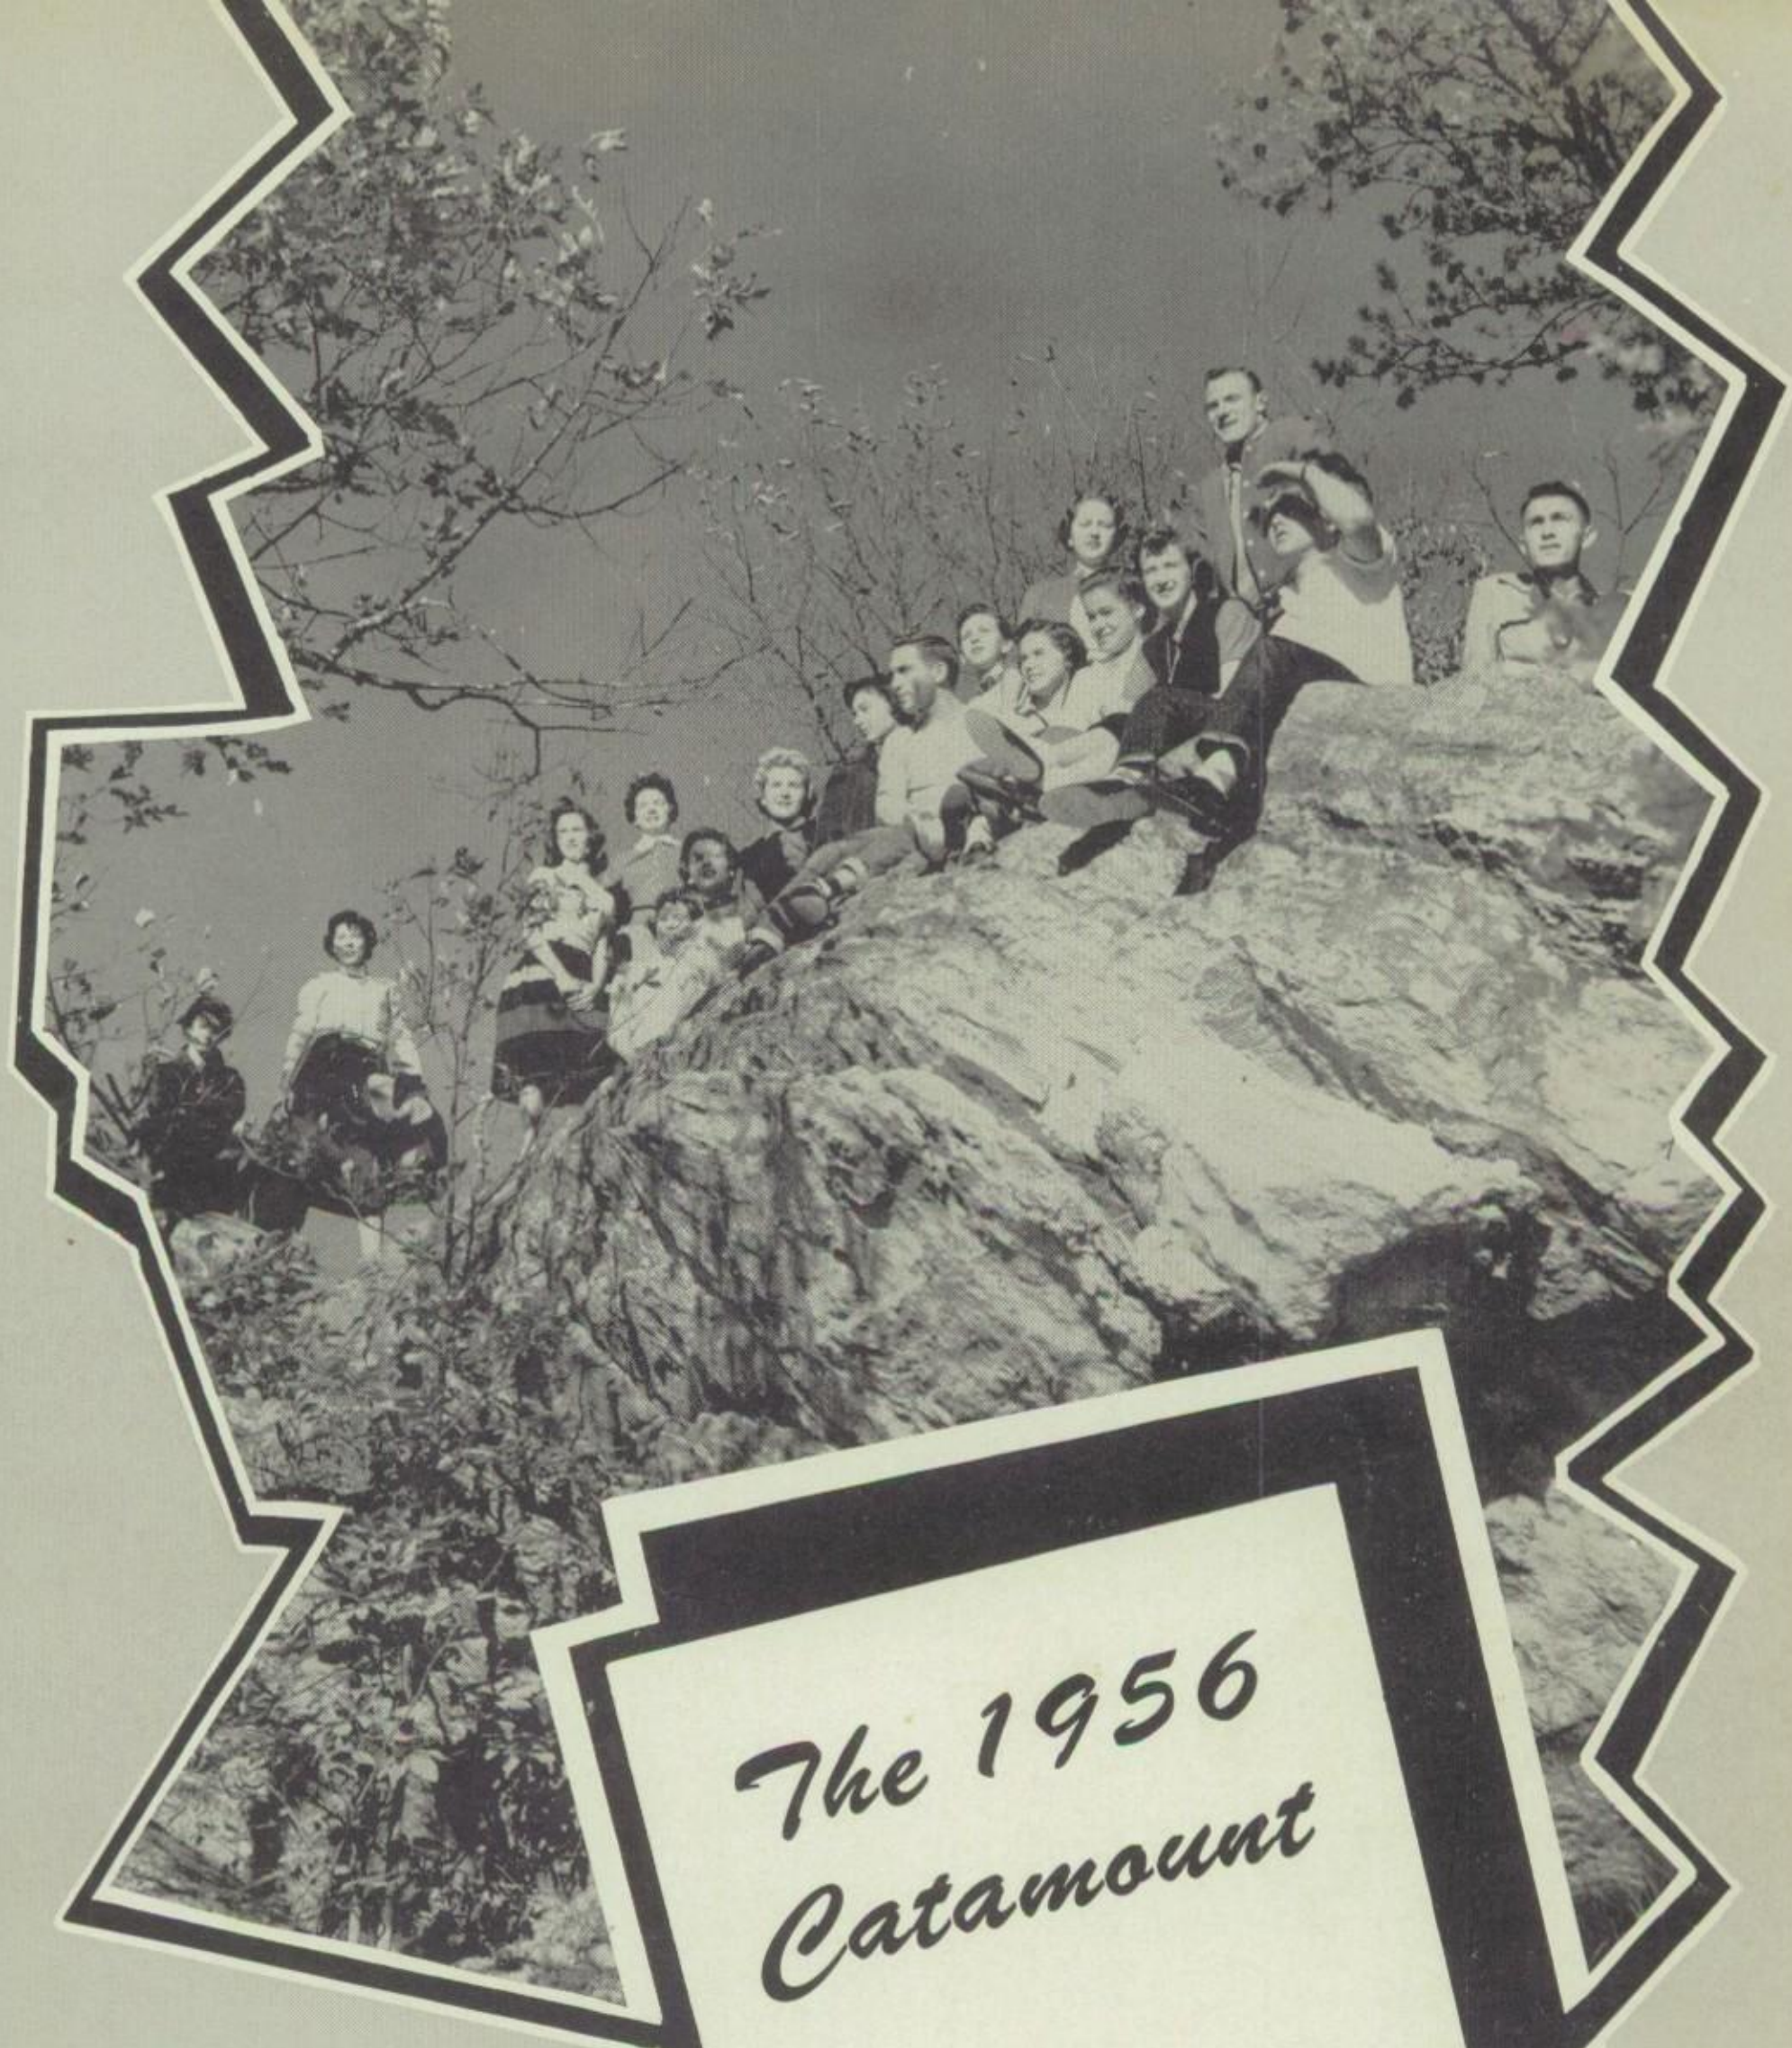

High school life is swiftly passing,
Soon its sands are run.
But while we live we'll ever cherish
Friendships here begun.

Faithful, loyal Dalton
High School,
Deep graven on each heart;
Shall be found unwavering true,
When we from life shall part.

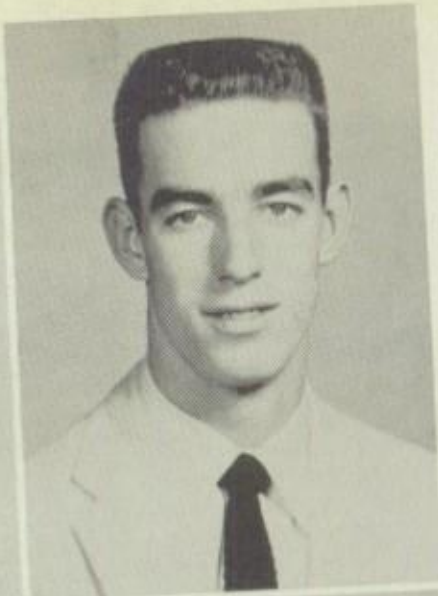

Dear Willie
really have ever minute, I've known you, I hold had many other, I hold times all future, I hold hope and future, I hold every money, I hold at heart. Good luck year. Love always, Anne

Dear "Willie",
We have really had some experiences these past years of school and I have enjoyed so much having those good years with you. Willie, I hope that college next year is all that we hope it will be. We will always be the best of friends, I know and I shall look forward to the day when we're all "home folk" friends and not just school chums. You're even so sweet & I love ya.
Martha Ann

Dear Willie,
I'll always remember the fun we've had together, starting at Fort Hill and how in our Senior Year.
If we get in Scott (who knows) I hope we will be a help to each other - I'm as seared as you.
Don't ever forget
these past years!
Love ya,
Nancy

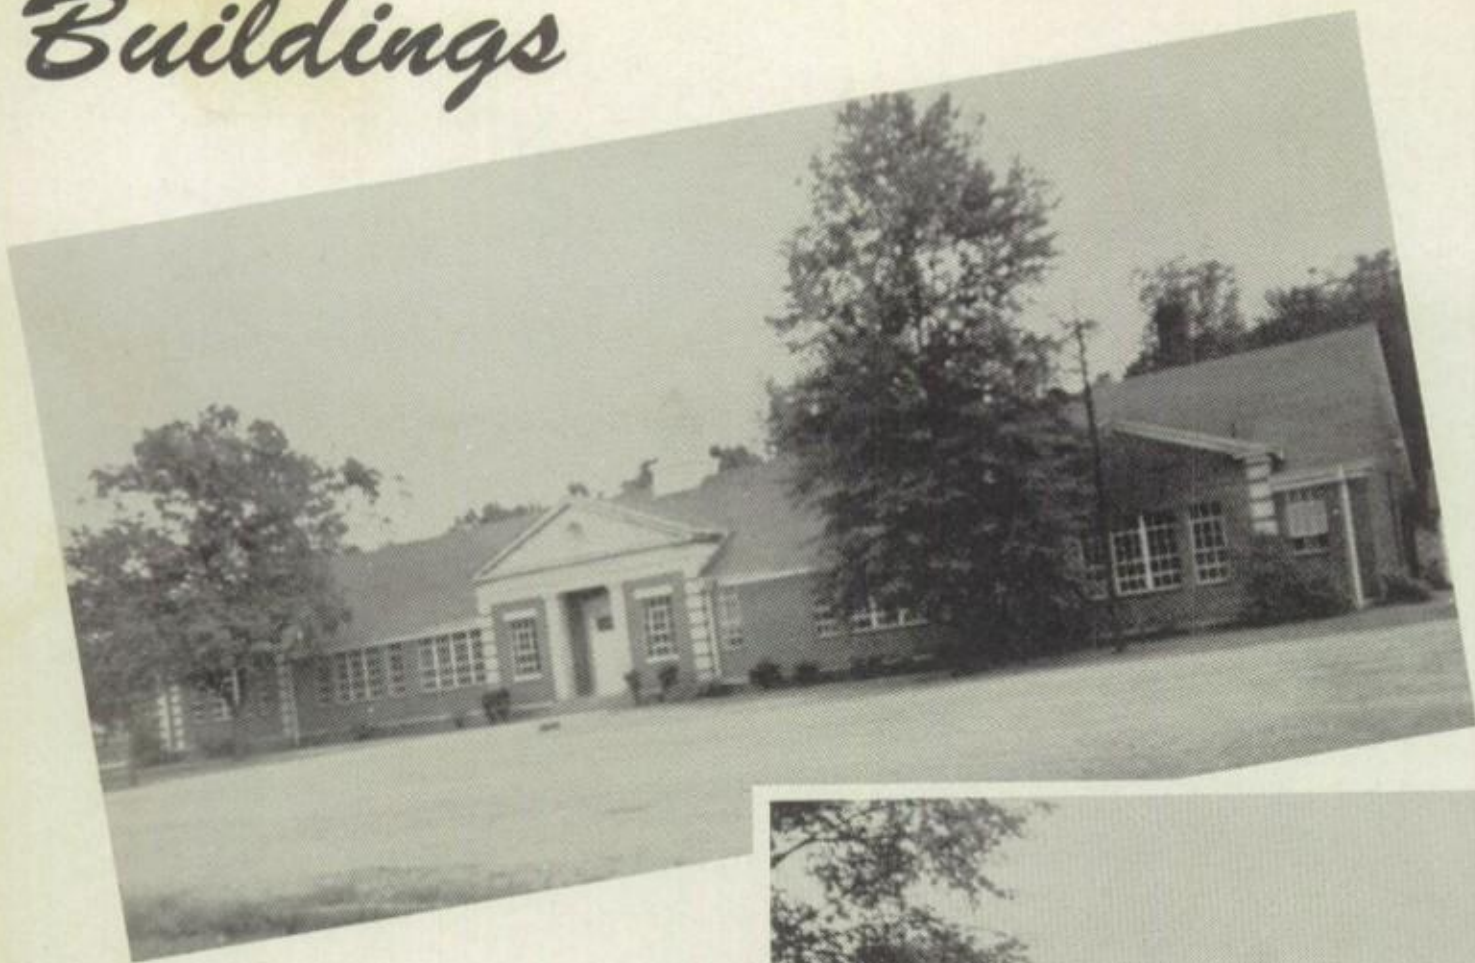

Foreword

"Yesterday is ours in memory; tomorrow is ours in prospect and promise."
But the present is so very important to us now that we, the Staff, have attempted to "stop the clock" on some of these "Moments to be remembered."

Our efforts in capturing these moments may be judged successful if, when the present becomes the past, the turning of these pages will fill you with warm remembrances and inspire you in the future to some worthy accomplishment.

The task has not been an easy one, but if you, the Students, receive the '56 Catamount with only half the enthusiasm with which we present it to you, we are duly compensated.

We affectionately dedicate this '56 edition of the Catamount to Mr. Lofton Ward, whose camera has recorded all the outstanding events of our high school life. This job he has skillfully and conscientiously done, but it is his "performance beyond the call of duty" that has endeared him to us immeasurably. His humorous wink, his quick wit, his ready smile, his limitless patience, his energy and resourcefulness, and above all, his genuine love for young people make him easily the one most deserving of this honor.

Leadership they provide;

Latin classes enjoy studying type of dress worn in Ancient Rome.

to think with numbers;

Floyd Hale explains this difficult problem in geometry to Freddie Amtower, Martha McKinney, and Mr. Denman.

to use hands skillfully;

Useful crafts are learned in Industrial Arts class.

to help others patiently;

City Park school children learn the correct way to spell from Elementary Education aide, Vickie Kirk.

to explore our world through science

Coach Anderson explains different phases of animal life.

Miss Haws shows a Home Economics class how to make pie.

Graduation . . . Years from now, we thought that first day
Yet those years soon began to slip away
Each one more swiftly than the one before . . .
Passing until there were no more.
Excitement, learning, and growing up filled those short years
With hope, courage, laughter, and tears.
These are our moments to remember.

Dear Martha Ann,
To me, you're perfect queen, a permanent love in my heart.
Martha Ann, honestly you're one loved by the greatest people I know. Live showing you. Please let's always be friends. as we have until now.
Remember me back at all I hope you have all the luck and happiness in the world that you deserve.
Love you always,
Carey

Many Memories collected
Through the past year—
To bring back our school days
Ever so clear.

Best Wishes and Good Luck To
you. Love ya, Laurita D.

Kith

we have shared together. But I shall never forget them, and I hope you won't.

together. To the most beautiful of May Queens, I wish continued happiness and best wishes always.
Louisa.

Love ya,
W. Gandy

I wish you the best of everything.
 Yours truly
 Quaker.

High school ties can ne'er be bro
They can never die;
Far surpassing wealth unspoken
Sealed by friendship's tie.

High school life is swiftly passing,
Soon its sands are run.
But while we live we'll ever cherish
Friendships here begun.

CHORUS

Faithful, loyal Dalton
High School,
Deep graven on each heart;
Shall be found unwavering true,
When we from life shall part.
